Check in with the Cruise Crew

I think I'd make a Great Captain.
My uniform is perfect!

Do you really want me to sit here? There's no food!
But there's the chef, so that's a good sign...

All of these people look harmless,
could one really be the KILLER?

Well, we know one thing — someone sure likes to pose!

We're happy to report that EVERYONE survived our CRUISE TO MURDER — there was a miraculous recovery of our murder victim who went on to die again another day! Our passengers all disembarked having enjoyed their trip without mishap.

Thanks for joining us on this CRUISE TO MURDER. Your support of this event went to help us in our fundraising efforts to tell the story of Victoria Woodhull — first female candidate for the presidency in 1872. We've got a long way to go to complete the film, and we hope that in the meantime you'll join us for a presentation of our Reader's Theatre program about her, MADAM PRESIDENT: THE STORY OF VICTORIA WOODHULL. You can find information about the project's progress and our performance schedule at www.edenvalleyenterpriss.org.

If you'd like to make a tax deductible contribution to our programming efforts, ALL donations are appreciated. As a not-for-profit organization under the internal revenue code, all donations are tax deductible. You can send your check made out to Eden Valley Enterprises to us at 1250 East River St.; Elyria, Ohio 44035 or online at www.edenvalleyenterprises.org/evedonate.htm

Thank you to all of our sponsors, advertisers and raffle basket donors who helped make these festivities possible and especially to Pat Price and the cast and crew of Priceless Productions. A BIG salute to my crew members who helped put this event together and Tracy Boyer Isenberg who was our cruise photographer who made this memory book possible.

We hope to see you on our next cruise!

—jetham!—
