Suffrage Centennial*

A Festival Celebration of women and the right to vote through music, theatre, comedy, spoken word, and more.

"Now all we need is to continue to speak the truth fearlessly, and we shall add to our number those who will turn the scale to the side of equal and full justice in all things."- Lucy Stone, Suffragist, Orator, and Abolitionist.

Join Dunamis Theatre as they host a Suffrage Centennial to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the right to vote for women. The Centennial will be a festival of the history of the movement, theatre, music, comedy and much more all showcasing strong, creative women that are turning the scale with their art in Akron and the surrounding areas.

Saturday, March 30, 2019 — 1:00pm to 10:00pm
The Center, 118 W. Market St., Akron, Ohio 44308
Tickets are $10 for the entire day

ABOUT SUFFRAGE CENTENNIAL:

Beginning in 1848, Suffragists from all over the country fought for 72 years to win the right for women to vote. They worked tirelessly, sometimes giving their lives, so that women everywhere could give their voice to the Ballot Box. Women of all ages, shapes and sizes live and change the world in Akron. This 100 year celebration of the right to vote will be a celebration of the modern woman and the women that came before us. Women Equality Day is celebrated on August 26 but Akron will get the party started early on March 30th.

Dunamis Theatre is an alternative performance company with a priority to both cultivating new works and presenting published works in experimental form and/or challenging in content.
